room at home. I don't know what's wrong with me. I read the prayers for two hours, then I start reading the Quran and can't stop. And so on 10 or 11 times a day. I don't know how I can get rid of it. I understand that it is a disease because I can't stop. And if I don't read, I feel very bad. I read the Quran, surahs An-Nas, in Arabic when I am at home in my room alone. When I am in a room with many people, I do not read the Quran. I did not read the Quran in Russia, although I lived in the village as a child where there was a mosque, where I visited very often. I have not read the Quran in Russia, I only read it in Dagestan. I read the Koran in Makhachkala. I studied there, that's where I went to university, that's where I graduated from university, got married. There is a very good atmosphere in Dagestan with respect to Islam, there are very many good people in Dagestan. Dagestan is a very good region in terms of Islam. As for who is the most famous Dagestani theologian, I would like to mention Mufti of Dagestan Ahmad Abdulayev. He is a man who understands Islam very well. He is very respected in Dagestan, and he is known and respected not only in our region, but also in Russia. As to who among Daghestani theologians is the most famous, I find it difficult to answer. There are famous scholars in Dagestan, of course. In particular, we can name Imam al-Bulgari, Abdurakhman Daghly, Ali Alkhuzuri, Abdurakhman Ragimkhanov, Abdurashid Bashlarov and others. Still, I would put Imam Mahdi in first place. Not that he was the most famous, but because the people see in him their savior. And after all, Imam Mahdi is the one we are expecting in the near future. And, therefore, his teachings are the most important and the most important. Imam Mahdi has a teaching that I think even any sane person would agree with.
