How do you open up Photoshop for beginners? This article outlines some of the most important new features and changes that are sure to help novices get started with Photoshop. Easier to Open One of the biggest changes is a move toward user-friendliness. Photoshop has traditionally had a steep learning curve, but with the all new Design CC app, the new Photoshop CC app for Windows, and the new Photoshop CC app for iOS and Android, Adobe has made the program even easier to use. Design CC uses a simplified interface, one that mimics the look and feel of Sketch CC, the Mac app, but the New UI is easier to use and figure out. For the first time, Photoshop CC is a truly cross-device app as it runs on Macs, PCs, iOS, and Android. The new Photoshop CC app brings the familiar tools and features to iOS and Android mobile devices. The Android version has a simplified interface and a new timeline layout that makes it more accessible for touchscreen use, but for some, iOS users may prefer this new mobile app because they can access their MacBook Pro with just their iPad. Android users can even use their own Android tablet to access and work with their work in Photoshop CC. Adobe's entry-level package includes the PS CC 2015 app for iOS and Android devices, and for the first time, you can also download Photoshop CC 2015 on Windows. On the desktop, Photoshop CC 2015 is available in a standard version and in a desktop cloud version for those wanting to use Photoshop CC on their own servers. Some of the features that make Photoshop such a powerful tool are still included in the new version of Photoshop. The ease of use, optimization, and speed that makes Photoshop such a powerhouse is still top-of-the-line with the new changes. However, the release of these new features make the Photoshop workflow even faster. With the new feature offering, Photoshop CC is now able to import video, and add a variety of titles, animation, and video to your image. Allows You to Export Your Work To Multiple Formats As with the other app, Design CC allows you to export your work to multiple file types for maximum flexibility. Design CC can export as either Photoshop PSD or Illustrator Ai files, and the app can export to a number of file formats including: TIFF, EPS, PSD, AI, and

Couple rescued after fending off bear AUGUSTA, Maine (AP) — Rescuers say a couple who drove more than 100 miles to get help after their car broke down a shallow pond in Maine has been found safe. Lt. Richard Nadeau says rescuers heard a woodblock click of an outboard motor near a downtown beach Thursday and called police. The couple said their outboard's motor was broken, but there were just two of them: the woman driving and her boyfriend, who stayed in the car. Nadeau says they could have been taken by a bear. But they were able to get out and use the phone to call for help. As much as the couple suffered from hypothermia and exposure to the elements, they were more surprised and thankful to be found, Nadeau said.A lot of us Millennials are tired of seeing the same damn old stuff in the grocery store. It's Thanksgiving weekend! Now's the perfect time to stock up on fresh and local produce. Portland farm Stand meets one of the best thrift stores around (Eugene). Photo: Stand by Our Seed 1. Check out farm stands Some of the most popular farm stands are going to be in Eugene on Thursday. You can get the apple cider, local honey and fresh-picked produce such as beets, carrots and cucumbers. There are three stands on the Downtown Mall alone: one that is for the kids, one with cider and one with seasonal produce. You'll have a hard time not having to pay retail at the farm stand – everything's dirt cheap, but when you're buying organic produce it's all worth it. 2. Visit an institution Stop by Peoples Food and Fuel. This massive social enterprise grocery store is a really great place to stock up. It has a huge selection of food from small and mainstream grocers, and it is open all hours, every day. At Peoples, you can get all your necessities – rice, beans, eggs, meat, and now-and-then a good deal on fresh produce. "Many of the stores are doing well because they are selling a lot of meat, including beef, chicken, and pork," said one employee of the store. "This is probably the best time for people who are taking care of their livestock to let them eat."
