"We at Blue Planet know that the role-playing games market is saturated with games that claim to be "the next Final Fantasy" or "a reincarnation of Chrono Trigger." We did not set out to create a traditional Japanese role-playing game, or a Japanese game even. We set out to make a Final Fantasy 11, with an emphasis on fast-paced combat and easy, enjoyable gameplay. What we are proud of most is that we have built an MMORPG with an active community that lives and breathes through the myriad of people who play our game. From our hobby to your playtime, we hope to make it worth your time." Jin Atsutsui (CEO) Blue Planet Productions Visit our website at or
