You, the sport player, choose one from among seven wonderful and not insane characters, to date. Do you? Yes? No? Wait, let's start again. You will date seven characters. Each of them has two different endings and a lot of side routes/content and minigames. You will have to make a choice at some point and live with that choice. You will make dozens of choices. You will die multiple times. You might also die multiple times on your girlfriend's wish list. (Yes, of course it's a girlfriend). You will have to pass through a lot of content, like multiple self-perspectives, half-naked sporty pixies, main characters in "relationship" with other characters and many other kinds of minigames. If you read the terms of use and do not find it acceptable, fuck off. The characters Abinna (female): Abinna is a unique character. She gets afraid of some things. Especially heights and concrete and water. She loves rock stars more than boys, but if her heart desires it to the contrary, she would date a simple, yet good-looking boy. Who is secretly a singer and a rock-n-roll. Ray (male): Ray is very adventurous. He likes to play in more than one way. He loves ninjas, ninjas and more ninjas. He loves hats. He is also very good friends with some exotic dancers. He is also known for being the quiet one. Which is a shame, since he is actually very witty. Bimbo (female): Bimbo is a bit odd. She is very much interested in sports. Her favorite is the sport of pimp. Oh, and she hates with everything in her body any sport that is played in a metal band. But she still likes tattoos. Berto (male): Berto is unique in that he claims to be the opposite of Ray. He likes to go to basketball games. His annoying friends and his love for budge.. em, basketball (or is that the same thing?). Kary (female): Kary likes sports of all types. She likes swimming, the gym, the bars and the pool table. Don't get her started on discussion of the contents of the ball. She secretly wishes that they would start a new sport. The sport that is played with a ball of many, many colors. Akari (female): Akari is a ruthless person.

This invention relates to determining the identity of a document after presentation of that document to a scanner used for scanning a visible image on a document. More specifically, the invention relates to using an optical character recognition technique to determine the identity of a document submitted to a scanner. Most modern documents include some kind of visible image such as a printed logo, a print or typed text, a photographic image, etc. In many cases these can be viewed as having permanent features that permit them to be identified with a relatively high probability of success. Examples include, a product's trademark logo, a company identity, a company's name and address, or a company's security mark or serial number. However, in many cases, it is desirable to have the ability to document the content of all the information on a document without knowing the document's identity. For example, it may be desirable to have the ability to document the content of a newsletter using only one copy of the newsletter and sending that copy in the future to various recipients. It may also be desirable to have the ability to document the content of a lengthy letter, a legal document, etc. Many documents are written in small, low resolution fonts, making the physical

Explore the fantasy realm of Valga, where the planet has been turned into a world of magic and warriors. Fight through a variety of thrilling action-packed battles to discover the identity of the Blue Mage who has taken over the world... Granblue Fantasy: Versus is the official sequel to the hit smartphone game Granblue Fantasy. And it is no longer a simple tale of collecting and leveling-up! The story starts a little differently. Completely new characters and quests await you! *The game is based on the original smartphone/browser game Granblue Fantasy by Cygames and it is not related to Granblue Fantasy: Versus. Recommended by [NEX] Herobrine (NEX-White 1) Wow. Kind of disappointed with this one. Basically this is a sequel to the original Granblue Fantasy, which was a game that let you play from the viewpoint of Granblue and his companions. This sequel is slightly different in that you get to play as the alternate characters in the game, and you can play as them all at once. In this version, the characters included in this pack are Narmaya, Talia, Panthe, and Shansa. The main mechanic is called "Equip Skills", which allows you to equip any of the four characters with any weapon, and you can switch between them whenever you like. Each character has three types of skills that you can set as their AI skill, and one of them is different from the original Granblue Fantasy. 1. Equipment You can equip two weapons and up to three armor at a time. The equipment can be altered to be light or heavy. You can switch between weapons, and it changes your movement speed and attack power and defense. When equipped, the weapon and armor materials will be obtained from the enemies you defeat, and you can equip weapons of up to two different types. 2. Equipment Save Each time you die, your equipped equipment will be restored. There are three types of equipment. Heavy - Level 25 or higher Requires more maintenance, but you can carry two of them. Armor - Level 50 or higher Armor absorbs damage and boosts your defense. Light - Level 25 or higher Equip them with great care, since their durability is low. The most powerful weapon is the "Narmaya Axe", which is Narmaya's signature weapon. A weapon with a blue outline indicates it has a special c9d1549cdd

The Woodlands (sometimes written as Woodland) (is a residential neighborhood in Kirkland, Washington, United States. In 2004, the Census Bureau reported that the population was 13,782. Characteristics The Woodlands was the first stretch of houses in Kirkland that did not consist of large tracts of flat farmland. It was developed by Chase Construction Company. The original neighborhood developed approximately from Maple Crest Drive to Hawthorne Boulevard, approximately where Lake Mary and Meadowood Drive are today. The landscape was developed for large, family-sized homes, with lots ranging from. History The Woodlands was developed, in part, by the Chase Construction Company in 1960. The company was a company with many names over time. In 1960, it was known as Chase Construction. The company was then called the Meadowood Development Company in the 1970s and 1980s. Later, in the 1990s, the Chase name returned, but the company was called Chase Construction Company. The Wolf Canyon area was a development on Woodlands and Wolf Canyon roads. Most of the last houses in the neighborhood were built by Chase Construction Company in the 1960s. In 2003, four of the houses in that neighborhood were repainted, as were the homes in Woodlands. Wolf Canyon Road and Woodlands Drive are at the center of the area. Many of the housing developments used the same design and style throughout the entire neighborhood. Wolf Canyon Road and Woodlands Drive continued to connect the neighborhood to the east to the village of Lake Forest. One of the characteristics of Woodlands is its diversity. Roughly half of the properties have "2"-3,000 square foot houses, while the remaining half has houses from 3,000 to 6,000 square feet. Chase was known to use the same company throughout the development, which included several other houses in West Kirkland. Chase was in the business of building a variety of houses, including single-level, 2-story, 3-story, custom houses, and McMansions. Commercial and industrial businesses were developed in Woodlands and nearby neighborhoods, including the former Seven Winks restaurants, and Chase Construction Company properties. In 2002, Chase Construction built

Aldean Wine Cellar and Garage on Valley Crest Drive in Woodlands. In 2004, Chase Construction built Woodlands Wine Cellar, which is a wine cellar and wine store. In 2007, Chase Construction continued building new homes in the form of smaller houses, usually in the 2,000 square foot

This is a token pack of aquatic creatures for the Fantasy Grounds engine. Other token packs of aquatic creatures have been made here on NG, but I've taken on the task of making a token pack I'd like to use in my RPG campaigns. I have included uncommon creatures to be found in an adventure in a wilderness rather than in a city or such. I have used some color variations on some tokens and some weapons such as a spear, trident and sword. I hope you enjoy them! The "Aquatic Menace" starter set contains 17 different creature tokens. The tokens are visible to players as the tokens have name tags. The tokens contained in this product are available for purchase individually in my store here and have been converted to Fantasy Grounds Standard. What you see in this preview is the full token pack, however the tokens are dependent upon you having the Fantasy Grounds Unity or Fantasy Grounds Classic license. System Requirements: Fantasy Grounds 4 or later Game Size: n/a Recommended: Recommended System Requirements: Fantasy Grounds 5 or later File Size: n/a Requires: Fantasy Grounds Unity or Classic License: n/a In This Product Aquatic Menace-This token pack contains 17 creature tokens for your Fantasy Grounds adventures! The tokens include rare aquatic creatures used in wilderness settings. The tokens have name tags that are visible to players. The tokens are available for purchase individually in my store here and have been converted to Fantasy Grounds Standard. You may use any of the tokens in your adventures as you see fit! Eagle adds a rare beast to your collection of creatures. It may not be found in a city or a tavern but exists in the wilderness. He has heavy armor to protect his body and his head, is armed with a sharp beak and boasts a clawed forearm. Though he is a large bird, he is quite vicious. Wavesnipe has the ability to swim better than any other aquatic creature in existence. It can travel much faster and swim much longer than any other aquatic creature. However, it cannot swim underwater. It is also bigger than any other aquatic creature. Skum is a rare jellyfish variant that is fast, large and has a strong sting. It can be used as both a weapon and a defense for the Skum. It can do two things with its stinger: it can be used to pin
