The newest version of the software.El exdelegado del Instituto Nacional Electoral (INE) en Guerrero, Andres Rubio Ponce, quien fue detenido por su presunta colaboración con el crimen organizado y la delincuencia en seis juntas electorales precisamente en Guerrero, fue liberado. Rubio Ponce, de 53 años de edad, fue el encargado de las seis juntas electorales de la subregión alta del estado, en la que se dedicaron casos como el del candidato del PRI, el diario Reforma y los abusos cometidos por el gobernador electo Miguel Ángel Yunes. La Fiscalía General de Guerrero informó que la liberación de Rubio Ponce se dio hace unas semanas. El organismo explicó que no pudo acceder a información de origen y destino.
