What's the state of gay marriage? A new Pew Research Center survey of U.S. adults finds that support for legalizing same-sex marriage has risen significantly over the past five years, with solid majorities of Democrats (62%) and Independents (61%) now in favor; many Republicans (37%) remain opposed. Democrats' support for same-sex marriage rises to 75% in a newer national Pew Research Center survey conducted in June, 2013, compared to 55% in May, 2001, according to results of two recent Pew Research Center surveys. Among Independents, support rises to 67% from 43% in 2011, and in July of 2013 it was 59% among Republicans. Over the five years, the proportion of Democrats and Independents who favor legalizing same-sex marriage has grown from 44% to 71% and from 34% to 61%, respectively. Republicans have held steady at about half as many favoring such marriage (36%). Support for same-sex marriage has grown most in one of the two main groups of Americans that oppose it, overall Republicans. Republican women are the most supportive of same-sex marriage, with a 76% say they would favor the legal approval of same-sex marriage and only 20% disagree. Among Democrats, support for same-sex marriage has grown from 61% in May of 2001 to 75% in June, 2013, similar to the increase over the last four years. A view that is

System Requirements:

Running the game is very simple. You need to have a mouse, a video card that supports DirectX 11 and a DirectX 11 compatible operating system. You need an internet connection, though not always a high one (low speed internet is fine). You need to have at least 1 GB of RAM, or at least a 1.8 GHz processor, especially if you intend to use hardware shaders. If you are new to the source engine, you will probably want to download and install the latest version of the game (available here)
