For a long time, the Lands Between have been roamed by the monks of the Tower of Paltium and the feeble Knights of Sir Rokash. It was only after the people of Hame and Kherral went into the depths of the Lands Between did they discover a mysterious light. A light that had been lost to the people of Orland. Then an incredible event took place. The beings of the Lands Between came forth, and a new world was born, the Land of Rust. Yet, the new world was not destined to be lost. The people of Hame and Kherral braced themselves for the coming battles, believing that they were a people with great strength. However, their malicious intentions were the origin of a great war, the Arcane Fortunes War. Only one of the two factions were in a state of preservation, as the other had completely collapsed. And this meant, that the one who had been overcome would be completely lost. The Arcane Fortunes War took place. In it, the person who had belonged to the victory faction had won over the kingdom of the enemy. However, the one who had belonged to the victory faction was a treacherous person. It was one who had completely compromised the ideals of the Tower of Paltium and the Knights of Sir Rokash. Even so, the Elden Ring's power was sealed to the Tower and the Knights. As a result, the fighting forces of the Tower and the Knights have
