We did it guys. After many suggestions, and a HUGE amount of feedback, we managed to make a truly unique and original PHOTOSHOP KIT. It's big, beautiful and fun to use. I don't have Â£199.00 Â£399.00 on my account, and I'm not going to come up with Â£199.00. I even tried allowing people to buy from my account, to no avail. I thought it would be good to give our current customers a heads up, but I also didn't want to offend customers who wanted to buy, so I decided it would be best to give our current customers a link to the Sticker Kit. Please do some research into the product before asking. I have personally purchased the kit, and seen it first hand. I know exactly what I'm talking about. If you have no idea about the kit, let me offer this for you: It's essentially a kit of the pictures from the shirts, but all of them are in-world, and can be downloaded at any time. The resolution is about 4000x3000, and the view size is about 1000x1000. View Size: 900 x 1000. Resolution: 3000 x 4000. All pictures can be completely removed at any time, and free of charge. I don't know how or why it disappeared, but it was there before the update. A while back, we made that the default theme, and hid the download link in the skins tab of the image viewer. It's also hidden in the image previews. If you don't see the skin, you might need to re-install the update. You guys said you didn't want to release a shitty skin, and that's exactly why I did. It's a really big improvement over the default that was here before. The new theme is better because we removed the ugly "Alien" wallpaper and replaced it with a light blue one with our logo. Not that anyone would actually recognize that. The formatting is also a lot better. It's cleaner, and easier to view. And it's better quality overall. We took the time to make a download link on the download tab, and the skin. I'm sorry if you felt anything but betrayed by that. If you feel that that was a betrayal on my part, then I honestly apologize. We've spent the last 2-3 years trying
