Currently, I'm executing nuget restore via a console command. I need to move some of the logic out of the command to have the ability to: Avoid the need to build the same binaries multiple times. Make it easier to unit test the functionality. So I tried executing a script file via: scriptPath = Join(ResolveDirectory(Directory.GetCurrentDirectory()), "nuget.exe"); System.Diagnostics.Process.Start(scriptPath, @"-restore ""c:\uget.txt"" ""%USERPROFILE%\nuget\packages"""); However, I'm getting this error: Package Microsoft.Build.Tasks.v12.0.dll was not found in c:\Windows\Microsoft.NET\assembly\GAC_MSIL\Microsoft.Build.Tasks.v12.0\0.0.0_b03f57f111d50a3a. What am I doing wrong? Is there a better way to execute a script from within a nuget restore command? A: You can run the script from Powershell (the command-line tool that comes with Visual Studio) so simply run the restore from there. In one of my projects I am using the dotnet restore that comes from the NuGet Powershell: $nuget = Join-Path $NuGetDirectory "nuget.exe" $packageArgs = @(packageName = "My

Branislav Nusic Hajduci (Branislav Nusic) was a Serbian actor, film director, screenwriter and occasional writer. He was considered one of the first Yugoslav actors. The former president of the National Theatre, he is best known for writing several comedy films, among others, A Little Girl from Pest (1930), The Beautiful Mistress (1932), and Irregularly Wed (1932). Torneo Gastronómico de Vigo The Torneo Gastronómico de Vigo or the Gastronomic Tournament of Vigo or simply Vigo Gastronomic Tournament is an international Gastronomic-Dining-Tourism event with emphasis on gastronomic scene from Vigo, Spain. The contest is a collaboration of the Vigo City Council, the Vigo Tourism Office and the University of Vigo. The event was first edition in 2004 and it is promoted by the State Tourism Department as the National Gastronomic Games of the Year. The contest consists in a gastronomic tour across the city, with some variations in the itinerary, and awarding prizes to restaurants and chefs. The contest The event is split in three different parts. The first one is a gastronomic tour, in which participants must choose one of the twenty gastronomic itineraries created by the city council, being available for a two weeks period. The tour includes 26 restaurants, belonging to 10 categories (Restaurants, Wine Bars, Seafood Restaurants, Food for special occasions, Restaurants with Michelin stars, Cuisine of the Galician-Portuguese border, Restaurants in the Costa da Caparra, Patrimonio Gastronómico, Restaurants which have been nominated as best establishments by the members of the CIBERDEM group, Restaurants in the old quarter of the city, Restaurants located in the old apartments). The second one is the celebration of the best restaurants of the city, in which different chefs and restaurateurs take part to make available the top restaurant of the city. The third part is the contest. This last one is made up of two different parts: The team "Gustos" takes care of the teams who received gastronomic recommendation letters from the team, the team "Gastro" takes care of the teams who received the awards of quality of service of the restaurants in the second part. 6d1f23a050
