

Code_of_the_samurai.swf (Game, Samurai Jack) - and many other anime, humor and game flashes on one site! There are four levels in the game Code of the Samurai. At the beginning of the game we meet two characters that want to give us a job, to kill some man. If you do this then you automatically become a hero of the game. In each level we have the opportunity to buy different items, such as new clothes, weapons or equipment. As if it were not strange, but in this game also present money. Money we need in order to buy different things that are useful in the game. dd2bc28256
