How do people do that? A: In a job interview, what's the best way to answer a simple question? Don't answer it. A: Be incredibly honest. This question is an impossible gray area in many industries. It is a question you are unlikely to have been asked in a previous interview, and your answers to such questions vary a lot. As an interviewer, I am afraid I will find a few answers that satisfy me, only to learn that I don't want to hire you after all. Honesty may be your best policy here. Remember: the less you say, the more of an impact it will have on you. A: I'd answer as honestly as I could, and then state how I feel about the question. ♦
