- Assist users when delivering consistent and attractive web experiences across different sizes, resolutions and platforms.

Share for Review (beta) enables Photoshop users to get feedback on their art in real-time by clicking or tapping directly on a file, working area or image. From the desktop app or any web browser, you can share revisions of an image with others or comment on a version. You can also use the keyboard to insert your own note or comment. When selected by a collaborator, your edits are immediately shown in a panel next to the image. In addition, a drop-down menu appears with options to add annotations and feedback to a specific area of the image. Remix Canvas enables Photoshop users to create and collaborate on rich, web-native experiences across a range of popular browsers, including Chrome, Safari and Firefox for desktop and mobile hybrid web workflows that include the browser of your choosing. The latest selection tools, including Direct Selection Tool, Magic Wand and Content-Aware Patch, improve the accuracy of selections and select areas of the image, even when the differences are small. Using image adjustment features like the Dodge tool in conjunction with a selection allows you to create a smooth blend between the overlapping edge of the object and the surrounding area. Additionally, Photoshop's Content-Aware Mask feature intelligently fills in holes left behind by a selection, allowing you to obtain more detailed, accurate results.
